CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY (CIA)

ReBulet to WFO, copy to New York, dated 9/29/67 and replies from WFO and New York designating the number of additional copies each of those offices desires the Bureau to obtain.

nt [Redacted] b3
It is anticipated that sometime in the future a second printing will be made; however, agencies desiring additional copies will have to share in the cost of the printing which is expected to be approximately $4 per copy.

Due to stringent economic measures, the Bureau will not order additional copies as requested by New York and WFO at this time. In the event the cost per copy can be reduced by CIA, the Bureau will give further consideration to complying with WFO and New York's request at that time.

Reference is made to the publicity given to the dinner held by the Veterans' of the Office of Strategic Services (OSS) held on November 20, 1967. As reported, Senator Dirksen was presented a special award by the OSS veterans organization, and President Johnson also made a surprise appearance and gave a talk. You may be interested in the following information which was obtained by the Liaison Agent from several CIA officers who attended the function.

The OSS group, very much influenced by former OSS officers now with CIA, was very interested in having the President appear at the dinner. It was generally assumed that the President would not appear, but primarily due to the influence of Senator Dirksen, he did show up. Prior to his departure, he shook hands with all of the people at the main table. It was noted that he gave a very perfunctory handshake to Senator Mansfield. He stopped and chatted with Allen Dulles for a few moments.

Check it out?

The CIA and the FBI paid us an unfriendly visit. Agents for each of the silent services presented their credentials and a joint complaint in behalf of their agencies.

They said there was no truth in an Examiner story the issue of November 22-26 which reported a secret agreement between the CIA and the State Department to protect their sexual screwballs from the light of day.

They demanded a retraction.

We refused.

The story's true.

The CIA and FBI agents turned the episode into pure farce by grouching that we should have "checked" before printing the story. This is so ludicrous that it's difficult to believe they were serious.

Both agencies carry their policies of secrecy so far that they refuse to cooperate with the nation's press even on news stories involving the national interest.

~~Neither~~ has ever given a reporter the time of day.

Captioned publication carried a snide and inaccurate editorial which appeared in its December 28-31, 1967, issue. The editorial contained erroneous allegations concerning the FBI. The Director has inquired: "Did we do this?"

BACKGROUND:

Attached is a copy of an editorial captioned "Check it out?" which appears in the December 28-31, 1967, issue of the "Washington, D. C., Examiner"--the tabloid-type newspaper started this year by D. C. Transit executive O. Roy Chalk. This editorial states that the November 22-26, 1967, issue of the "Washington, D. C., Examiner" contained an article reporting on "a secret agreement between the CIA and the State Department to protect their sexual screwballs from the light of day." The editorial continues that "The CIA and the FBI paid us an unfriendly visit... (and) said there was no truth in the story which appeared in the November 22-26 issue. The editorial then charges that the FBI and the CIA "carry their policies of secrecy so far that they refuse to cooperate with the nation's press even on news stories involving national interest. Neither has ever given a reporter the time of day."

This editorial is wrong not only in stating that the FBI contacted the newspaper regarding the article in the November 22-26 issue, but also in stating that the FBI refuses to cooperate with the nation's press. In all probability, CIA and State Department representatives (rather than CIA and FBI personnel) contacted the "Washington, D. C., Examiner" with regard to the November article.

TO : The Director

FROM : N. P. Callahan

SUBJECT: The Congressional Record

Page A1433. Congressman Lutski, (D) New York, extended his remarks and stated WCR radio and television station in Buffalo, N. Y., had an excellent editorial recently on the need for the Central Intelligence Agency in helping to combat communism. A great deal of unhealthy criticism has been heaped upon this Agency as a result of the disclosures of some of its methods of operation. I find it heartening, therefore, to read an occasional article or editorial which makes sense, and does not reflect signs of hysteria often born of political expediency. He placed the editorial in the Record.

SUBJECT: The Congressional Record

Page H2769. Congressman Moss, (D) California, placed in the Record an editorial from the Sacramento Bee of March 7, 1967, entitled "CIA Defenders Support Methods of Communists." Mr. Moss recommended the reading of this editorial and stated "Our great strength is our society's differences in method--let us not dilute our freedoms by emulating the systems we have so long opposed. If public support is required, let us unassumingly publicly give it."

Pages A1333-A1334. Congressman Ryan, (D) New York, placed in the Record an editorial from the March 4th issue of the Saturday Review entitled "Subversion by Government." Mr. Ryan advised the editorial discusses the recent disclosure of CIA funding of domestic organizations, traces the history of the activities of this agency and shows the need for a congressional oversight committee. The editorial states "The CIA was conceived twenty years ago as a specific response to the global subversive activities of communism. It was decided, on the highest levels of government, that what the U. S. needed was a super-secret agency with worldwide capabilities--an agency far more secret than even the FBI."

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

SUBJECT: The Congressional Record

Pages S3333-S3338. Senator Proxmire, (D) Wisconsin, spoke concerning the appearance of Senator Mansfield, (D) Montana, on the Columbia Broadcasting program "Face the Nation." He included the text of this broadcast with his remarks. The activities of CIA in connection with student groups was brought into the discussion and Mr. Mansfield stated "I do not think the CIA should ever have been involved in covert activities of this sort, and may I say that the CIA felt and still feels the same way. I am in favor of government subsidies to students to participate in international conferences on the same basis that the State Department subsidizes dance troupes, - - - -."

66-1981-3041
Original filed in:

Pages S3385-S3389. Senator Felt, (D) Rhode Island, spoke concerning the support of various student groups by the CIA. He stated "There is no question that some sort of Government support should have been given to these groups. - - - The mistake was that this support was given covertly by the CIA rather than overtly by the Department of State or the U. S. Information Agency. - - - I still believe that a closer degree of congressional oversight is needed. If we had had this we might have found some political means to secure the proper funding of these student activities without embarrassing the CIA and the Nation." He included miscellaneous material with his remarks. This material included an article from the Providence Sunday Journal of February 26, 1967, entitled "The CIA Scandal: A Test of Democracy." This article stated "Were it any other department or agency of the executive branch with all this free-floating money, there would have been as outcry from both sides of the aisle. But tangling with the CIA is like tangling with the Federal Bureau of Investigation. It is political hallowed ground."

Congressman Helter, (D) New York, pointed out that "there has been too much irresponsible talk about the so-called CIA infiltration of foundations, labor unions, and other non-governmental organizations. The fact is that CIA-aided groups have been instrumental in helping struggling democratic movements all over the world." FROM : SAC, CHICAGO (105-25168) (RUC)

SUBJECT: WHERE'S WHAT - REFERENCE BOOK
LIAISON MATTER
CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY (CIA)

DATE: 1/24/68

Re Bureau letter to WFO 9/29/67, copies of which were received by Chicago and other Offices with enclosures of captioned reference book.

Bureau requested recipient Offices to advise in the event this book was found to be a valuable reference and thereafter consideration would be given to obtaining additional copies for distribution to other Field Offices.

Since receipt of this reference book, the Chicago Office has found that while it contains a large amount of data already of general knowledge, it does encompass many areas where periodical reference to same by investigative personnel could be productive. Since receipt of this reference volume, the Chicago Office has made use of same. Accordingly, the Bureau may wish to secure additional copies for distribution to other Field Offices.

SUBJECT: CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
REQUEST FOR BUREAU LECTURE

(C) On January 22, 1968, [redacted] Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), inquired if the Liaison Agent could speak to a group of approximately 30 CIA intelligence officers who will be participating in a retraining course. Hunt asked if the lecture could be directed to the area of the Bureau's jurisdiction in matters dealing with internal security. CIA would not expect any references to pending cases, and there definitely would be no reason to comment on any sensitive matters. The lecture would be scheduled for February 19, 1968.

ACTION:

If approved, Liaison Agent Papich will handle this lecture and will restrict his material to nonsensitive matters.

SUBJECT: "WASHINGTON, D. C., EXAMINER"
ERRONEOUS EDITORIAL

Reference is made to memorandum from Jones to Bishop dated 12-29-67 to which is attached the editorial appearing in the December 28, 1967, issue of the above paper which is very critical of the FBI and inaccurate. The editorial alleges that representatives of the FBI and the CIA called on the paper to assert that "there was no truth in an Examiner story the issue of November 22-26 which reported a secret agreement between the CIA and the State Department to protect their sexual screwballs from the light of day." The editorial stated that the CIA and FBI representatives demanded a retraction of the article, which was refused.

It was recommended and approved in the above-mentioned memorandum of 12-29-67 that someone from my office call on [redacted] to straighten him out concerning the editorial and acquaint him with the Bureau's procedure with regard to news matters. The Director also instructed that the paper be removed from all mailing lists.

After trying for several days, I was able to see [redacted] on 1-5-68, and at the same time I talked with [redacted]. When advised by me that no representative of the FBI had called on the paper as indicated in the editorial, they both stated that they had been furnished this information by [redacted] who had informed them that he had so been visited by representatives of the FBI and CIA. They both indicated that they thought it was "peculiar" that an FBI Agent had made such a visit because the article in question had not mentioned anything whatsoever about the FBI.

I then demanded to talk to [redacted] and upon doing so, informed me, and both [redacted] that he had not told the latter two that he had been called on by an FBI Agent, but stated that he had been visited by [redacted]

Billy to DeLoach Memo
Re: "Washington, D. C., Examiner"
Erroneous Editorial

b7C

[redacted] were most apologetic for the incorrect data reflected in their editorial. They both immediately advised that they would print a complete retraction in the next issue of the Examiner and stated that they both admired the FBI and regret very much that we might have been embarrassed by the inaccurate information in their editorial. On this occasion to acquaint them thoroughly with the Bureau's procedures with regard to news matters for which they were very grateful and they both indicated that it was their desire to give complete cooperation to the Bureau in every way possible.

In accordance with the Director's instructions, we will remove the Washington Examiner from the Bureau's mailing lists. It is felt that this incident will serve a very useful purpose with our future relations with this new paper, and that it will certainly not undertake to print anything that will be derogatory to the Bureau in the future without first checking with us. If they carry out their promise, it well could be that this paper will prove to be a valuable ally of the FBI and we may wish to give consideration after an appropriate period of time to reinstating the paper on the Bureau's mailing list if the paper is favorable in its dealings with the Bureau. We will follow this closely and submit a recommendation concerning the possible reinstatement of the paper to the mailing list after an appropriate period of time, if future developments warrant it.

The Liaison Agent has learned that in the very near future, CIA is scheduled to brief certain members of the captioned Committee concerning [redacted]. The briefings will be afforded to George Mahon, Chairman of the Committee, and to George W. Andrews, (Democrat-Alabama); Frank T. Bow, (Republican-Ohio); Leonard P. Lipscomb, (Democrat-California); and [redacted] a Committee staff officer.

b7C

The present plan is to have several CIA officials brief the Congressmen concerning [redacted]

b3

[redacted] All of this is significant in that CIA has never afforded such extensive briefings to the captioned Committee. Heretofore, the CIA Director and one or two assistants appeared on the Hill and presented a general briefing. Needless to say, CIA is trying to gear its efforts to make the best impression possible.

Discreet inquiries by the Liaison Agent have failed to develop any evidence indicating that CIA will bring up any matters involving the Bureau.

BOOK AUTHORED BY JULIUS MADER

Liaison has previously reported that the captioned book, published in East Germany, is scheduled to appear in the English language in June, 1968. It allegedly will list 3,500 members of "civil and military branches of the secret services of the USA in 120 countries." By letter dated May 17, 1968, Legat, Bonn, was requested to obtain a copy of the book if it were readily available.

The article covers an interview of Dr. Julius Mader, the author of the book. Mader is quoted as stating that the list will include representatives of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Air Force, and "U. S. diplomats." There is also the statement, "Also, anyone interested in FBI officials, both on domestic and on foreign assignment, will not find a dearth of information."

"WHO'S WHO IN CIA"
BOOK AUTHORED BY JULIUS MADEN
5/24/66

5/24/68

WHO'S WHO IN CIA?

An unusual book lies on our editorial desk. Its title is: WHO'S WHO IN CIA? -- A Biographic Reference Work Covering Collaborators of the Civilian and Military Secret Services of the US in 120 Countries.

Thus far, the world has never seen a publication of this sort. Therefore, our editor Franz HELM interviewed its publisher, Berlin publicist Dr. Julius MADER.

Question: Mr. MADER, what do you hope to achieve with this biographic secret service register?

Answer: The global strategists of North American imperialism use the scandal-ridden CIA like a dangerous weapon. All US espionage and sabotage activities are planned, prepared, executed, evaluated and controlled by specific individuals. If one wishes to take the required defensive steps against these subversive acts, one must be familiar with the organizers of North American "cloak-and-dagger" policy in sufficient time and with the maximum possible accuracy. - My book names thousands of these subversive elements. In order to counter US global strategy in a special area, I placed emphasis on processing data from 120 countries on all five continents.

Question: This must have required an amount of effort which it is difficult to visualize. How long were you working on this book?

DATE: 10/11/2001

FBI INFO. CLASSIFIED BY 60322UC/LP/DCG/v4a

DECLASSIFY ON: 25X3.3(1) 10/11/2031

DDR Journal aus der Deutschen Demokratischen
Republik No. 5 (May) 1968

Answer: Ten years ago, I published a documentary report, entitled: Gangsters in Action, dealing with the establishment and crimes of the CIA. It could be said that I have been systematically working on WHO'S WHO IN CIA since that time.

Question: How does that affect the currency of the information?

Answer: Naturally, this is assured. On the basis of research, which was also conducted in Mexico City, Yokohama, Bombay and Beirut, the book reflects the personal status as of the end of 1967 -- in individual cases, it even goes as far as the Spring of 1968.

Question: You are contravening the intensified CIA secrecy regulations through your work.

Answer: Certainly. It is said that the US secret service is as full of holes as Swiss cheese. For example, in April 1966, The New York Times published the results of its CIA agent counting efforts. The editors had found some 2,200 CIA agents under diplomatic cover at foreign representative facilities of the Department of State alone. However, The New York Times was not permitted to name a single name. In my book, those interested will also find this circle of individuals, complete with detailed data, such as dates of birth, academic degrees, military service, career development, assignment locations and -- I have restricted the last category to West Germany and West Berlin -- residential addresses, complete with house numbers.

Question: Does the biographic data pertain only to CIA collaborators?

Answer: The CIA served as an appropriate synonym. You will also find that the publication contains personal data on secret service officers of the US Army, the US Navy, the US Marine Corps, and the US Air Force. US Military Attaches and US diplomats who have been expelled from socialist countries for espionage since 1945 are listed from A to Z. Also, anyone interested in FBI officials, both on domestic and on foreign assignment, will not find a derth of information.

Question: In how many languages has your work thus far appeared?

Answer: Currently, the book is ^{ready} in German and English. Publication in additional foreign languages is still currently under discussion with prominent publishing houses.

Question: In what do you see the principal effect of your right handily printed work?

Answer: First, in the fact that at one fell swoop, many hundreds of CIA men are deprived of their cover and the searchlight of public [opinion] is focused on them and their activities, which endanger peace. Second, in the fact that precisely during a presidential election year in the US, a considerable portion of the "invisible government -- as the CIA is called in the US vernacular -- is identified by name and face [pictures?]. And third, in the fact that the branded CIA people cannot simply be sent off on new assignments to locations where their past CIA activities have remained unknown.

Let us take only three concrete examples from the book: C. G. COGAN, E. A. MARELIUS and P. R. PETERSON were unmasked by name years ago as agents of the CIA in New Delhi. The Department of State has since installed these subversion experts in the US Embassies in Khartoum, Stockholm and Warsaw. Such "transfers" will be rapidly detectable in my book, not only because of the biographic portion but also on the basis of the extensive specific geographic index.

Question: How do you visualize your further activities regarding this book?

Answer: As a rule, journalists do not like to discuss their future work. However, I cannot erase my sentence in the introduction to the book, which states: "Additional reference works could follow."
